❖ Tasting Notes

Dry, light, supple and fruity, Sylvaner is capable of pairing with simple dishes all the while remaining a thirst-quenching wine. It will please anybody who likes dry white wine.

Pale yellow colour, shiny with green tints. The nose, marked by pleasant freshness, opens onto refined floral aromas of lime and elder berries. Crunchy and refined, this Sylvaner develops good freshness on the palate. Fat and well-balanced, it boasts harmonious matter. Elegance on the finish, dominated by aromas of herbal tea, and white flowers with good aromatic persistence. A very nice gastronomic wine.

❖ Food Pairing

This Sylvaner goes well with sauerkraut, hors-d'oeuvres and appetisers. It has all of the freshness and character required to pair with a nice shellfish or seafood platter, in particular oysters. It goes particularly well with all sorts of cold cuts. This Sylvaner is well-bred, it can easily replace a Riesling with any type of fish.
